

IMAGES OF MEMBER COMMUNITIES

PAGE 2

Cuba City. The “City of Presidents” displays an authentic Chicago & North Western caboose featuring a portrait of Ulysses S. Grant. Grant, who was president when Cuba City incorporated, rode the railroad through Cuba City on November 22, 1878.

Muscoda. Muscoda celebrates its role as “Wisconsin’s Morel Capital” with the Muscoda Morel Mushroom Festival each spring. Photo: Doug Alft.

River Falls. A smoke stack remains from the old Junction Falls Flour Mill on the Kinnickinnic River.

PAGE 3

Oconomowoc. Fowler Lake features a waterfront recreational area, with historic downtown nearby.

Columbus. The annual Columbus Carriage Classic, a pleasure driving competition, takes place in Fireman’s Park. Photo: Nancy Osterhaus.

PAGE 4

Oconto Falls. Residents and visitors swim, fish and boat in the waters of the Oconto River.

Westby. The Snowflake Ski Club hosts an annual ski jump tournament that draws competitors from more than a dozen countries. Photo: Eric Wuennenberg.

New London. The Wolf River flows through downtown’s Tast Park, where boating and fishing are popular pastimes. Photo: New London Area Chamber of Commerce.

PAGE 5

Menasha. From the boat launch at Smith Park, boaters and fishermen can reach the Fox River waterway.

Cedarburg. The Cedarburg Mill, built in 1855 to take advantage of Cedar Creek’s rapidly falling water, once produced 120 barrels of flour a day. Photo courtesy of Village Profile.

PAGE 6

Lodi. Spring Creek is home to Susie the Duck, a famous Lodi resident since 1948, and her descendents. Photo: Gary N-ski.

Whitehall. The 1914 railroad depot is undergoing restoration and will become a visitors’ center for Whitehall.

Prairie du Sac. Bald eagles congregate at the Wisconsin River to feed in winter. Photo courtesy of Ferry Bluff Eagle Council.

PAGE 7

Algoma. Pierhead Lighthouse, built in 1893, is still operational today in Algoma Harbor.

Sun Prairie. At the annual Sweet Corn Festival, more than 70 tons of corn are consumed over the course of a weekend. Photo: Mary Langenfeld.

Lake Mills. The 1,371-acre Rock Lake is a center for recreational activity.

Waupun. Known as the “City of Sculpture,” Waupun is home to an outdoor gallery of seven original bronze sculptures.

PAGE 8

Brodhead. Brodhead is the southern trail head of the 23-mile Sugar River Bike Trail. Photo: Mary Langenfeld.

Richland Center. The Wisconsin High School Rodeo Finals attract more than 150 contestants.

PAGE 9

Slinger. St. Peter’s Catholic Church, built in 1893, rises among the hills.

Sturgeon Bay. Sturgeon Bay, located between Lake Michigan and the waters of Green Bay, has a rich maritime history. Photo: Door County Advocate.

Hartford. City Hall, with its historic bell tower, is visible from the banks of the Rubicon River.

PAGE 10

Waterloo. The antique carousel, built in 1911 by C.W. Parker, is one of only 150 antique carousels in the United States that is still open for rides.

Hustisford. The Dam on the Rock River forms the 2,855-square-acre Lake Sinissippi.

PAGE 11

Stoughton. The annual Syttende Mai festival celebrates the signing of the Norwegian Constitution. Photo: Andy Krauschaar.

Eagle River. The Ice Castle is an annual holiday tradition leading up to Klondike Days in February.

Reedsburg. Built in 1896, the former Stolte Hotel has been restored for commercial use.

PAGE 14

New Glarus. The Swiss heritage of New Glarus is reflected in its downtown streets and in the annual Wilhelm Tell Festival. Wilhelm Tell Photo: Andy Krauschaar.

PAGE 15

Juneau. The Dodge County seat, Juneau features several government buildings, both old and new. Administration Building Photo: Keith D. Glasgow.

PAGE 16

New Richmond. The New Richmond Heritage Center features 10 historic buildings, including the original Victorian farmstead, built in 1884.

Plymouth. Veterans Park provides a view of the Mullet River Dam and the river below the dam.

PAGE 17

Florence. LaSalle Falls, on the Pine River, is accessible to hikers via a woodland trail. Photo: Charles Cook.

Waunakee. Six Mile Creek winds through Village Park, one of four community parks in Waunakee.

Boscobel. Muskets & Memories, an annual Civil War reenactment, features an evening ball. Photo: Lance Meyers.

PAGE 18

Kaukauna. The old water wheel sits near the Grignon Mansion, now the oldest home in Outagamie County. Photo: One 2 One™ Software Consulting & Training LLC.

PAGE 19

Two Rivers. Lake Michigan’s past as a commercial fishing hub is reflected in the historic Rogers Street Fishing Village Museum. Photo: RJ & Linda Miller.

New Holstein. The Timm House, 1892, is home to the New Holstein Historical Society. Photo courtesy of Wisconsin Department of Tourism.

Jefferson. The Milwaukee Street walk-bridge, dedicated in 2002, was built with the help of public donations.

Black River Falls. The 67,000-acre Black River State Forest includes two branches of the Black River. Photo: David W. Herrick.